CALL FOR PAPERS

«QUADERNI ASIATICI»

ISSN: 2038-9795 - Publication registered at the Registry of the Court of Milan, col. n. 290 on 11th June 1983

Quaderni asiatici, a multidisciplinary scientific journal of the association Centro di cultura Italia-Asia "G. Scalise" (www.italia-asia.it/quaderni), has been promoting the knowledge of Asian cultures for over thirty years, covering an extensive range of themes and methodologies. The magazine is published every three months, and offers its readers a privileged access point to the variety of research and studies dedicated to Asia and related topics.

The Quaderni asiatici editorial team invites the submission of previously unpublished articles and essays, which are the result of original research.

The articles received will be evaluated according to the double blind peer review system.

The articles proposed must comply with the editorial standards indicated on the journal's website. Articles may be written in Italian or in specific cases in English.

The maximum length of articles is 30,000 characters (including spaces).

Unpublished translations - from Asian languages - of poems or short stories will also be considered, when accompanied by a critical comment or a scientific introduction.

Articles must be submitted with a brief abstract, as well as a short biography of up to 600 characters (including spaces). It is recommended that the abstract be sent in advance for an initial evaluation.

The editorial team will also evaluate reviews of recently published volumes, movies and interviews dealing with recent events. The magazine also includes "The Collector's Corner", a section dedicated to the passion of collecting Asian art.
